

Transonic wing, held-out geometry: volume reconstruction from 512 surface pressure taps + 128 shear gauges (midspan slice); $\text{corr}(\text{std}, |\text{err}|) = 0.77$

Sensors live only on the wing skin (dots); posterior std contracts onto the instrumented surface and widens into the wake.